Planning Session
March 6, 2018, Immediately Following Special Meeting

Superintendent Bennett noted that there will be work done on some of the facilities over Spring Break. She told the Board that she would be bringing back a contract for Marketing and noted that interviews for Nikolette's job had been conducted. Superintendent Bennett noted that CCSC would be partnering with the Clarksville Parks Department for a Summer Kickoff Party. She reminded the Board about the Community Partner Night next Tuesday.

Comments

C. E. A. Communications: Ms. Janet Wagner, C.E.A. President, thanked Nikolette on behalf of all the teachers. She noted that Nikolette's position would be filled but that she would not be replaced.

Comments from Citizens: Steve Matheny, Resident, signed up to speak. He said he was concerned about Clarksville High School athletics, saying the program was going downhill. He noted that many sports don't have full teams. He said he hoped CCSC would go into a smaller conference and thought it would mean more success for the program.

Comments from Board Members: Ms. Wilson said CES did a great job on the Lion King Kids. Mr. Payne congratulated the basketball team for their great season. He also reminded the Board to spring forward this weekend. Ms. Hauber said Nikolette would be missed. Mr. Hansford echoed that thought. Mr. Wilson thanked Mr. Matheny for his support.

Personnel

Superintendent Bennett noted that more personnel items would be added before next week.
