RICHARD C. SCOTT DESIGN SCHOLARSHIP

Dear Prospective Applicant,

First and foremost, thank you for taking the time to consider and apply for the Richard C. Scott Design Scholarship. Throughout his 40 plus years as a registered architect, Dick inspired and mentored many young architects and designers to achieve their highest potential. The Estopinal family wishes to continue his legacy and help provide a start for a young future designer to also attain their goals.

In order to qualify for this scholarship, one must be a current high school senior in Clark, Floyd, Harrison, or Scott County, Indiana. In addition to having an interest in pursuing a degree in a design related field, applicants must also show outstanding skills in the classroom.

Please provide all requested materials** listed on the application pages no later than Tuesday, April 7, 2020. The winning applicant will be chosen by a selection committee composed of current staff members at TEG Architects. The chosen applicant will be notified within 2 weeks after the application deadline.

Sincerely,

Theresa Estopinal, MBA
Managing Partner - Human Resources and Finance

RICHARD C. SCOTT DESIGN SCHOLARSHIP

Dick was born in Jeffersonville, Indiana on April 17, 1930. His family has been a part of the community for over 150 years, and his father started Scott Funeral Home at their house in 1932 which still serves Jeffersonville today.

Dick graduated from Jeffersonville High School in 1948. After graduating, he attended University of Kentucky for 1 year and played basketball for Coach Rupp. The following year he attended IU Southeast and worked construction due to an electrical accident that injured his foot. Dick then attended Miami of Ohio University for 4 1/2 years where he married Rosie Vissing another Jeffersonville native. They had 4 children (Terry, Rick, DeeDee, and Marty).

Dick was drafted into the U.S. Army in 1954 where he served in Germany for 2 years. Upon returning, he took a job in Jeffersonville with a local architecture firm. Dick worked for several local firms as an employee and an owner/co-owner. He became a registered architect in 1967. He retired from ACBL in 1992, but remained a regular consultant for them until 2005. In 2005, Dick became a consultant/mentor at TEG Architects in Jeffersonville, working for Wayne Estopinal whom Dick had employed as an intern when he owned his own firm. Dick served as a mentor/consultant to many young, budding architects at TEG Architects. He passed away on May 28, 2017 at the age of 87.

This scholarship exists to continue the legacy of a life-long pursuit of design excellence and community service. When asked what advice he might have for today's youth, Dick simply said, "Choose a path, pursue an education, find a job, and be persistent even in the tough times". Dick understood learning does not start and end in a classroom, and exemplified the fact that you are never too old to learn.
